are pleased to announce!

Albuquerque Museum Collectors Dinner Fundraiser

One-Night-Only Art Dinner, Presentation and Drop Box Sale

Albuquerque Museum Collectors Dinner and Miniatures & More Fundraisers

Healey Studio is proud to announce that both John Healey and Ema Tanigaki have been invited to submit works of art for the Collectors Dinner held at the Albuquerque Museum. This will be the Albuquerque Museums 4th year for the dinner and the 3rd year of offering artwork to buy that evening only. Proceeds from the sale are divided between the artist and the Museum Foundation.

The Collectors Dinner promises to be an exciting and educational evening. The dinner includes a private presentation by the Albuquerque Museums Fine Art Curator Andrew Connors where Andrew speaks personally about each of the eight artists and their artwork available at the dinner. The prices are set for each piece at the discretion of the artist and sales are conducted via drop box sale. A drop box sale is where diners may fill intent to purchase forms and put one form in each box for each piece they have interest in purchasing. One form is drawn from each box and the winner of the draw becomes the buyer of that work of art.

John and Ema are both planning to create new works of art for their signature series, an optical glass sculpture for John and a solid gold fine wire hand cut glass necklace for Ema. These may be the last works of these series that will ever be made since John is in negotiation to sell most of his optical glass studio equipment and Ema will be using the final single strand of ultra fine solid gold custom drawn wire that she possesses.

The Collectors Dinner is held on Friday October 24, 2014. There are only 40 seats available for the dinner and reservations are on a first come, first reserve basis. The cost is $500 per person which includes a ticket to come back the next night for the cocktail party and big opening night of Miniatures and More. If you are interested in attending the Albuquerque Museums Collectors Dinner 2014 or have further questions, please contact Rita Butler at (505) 338-8732 or Elaine Richardson at (505) 338-8733. Please do not delay, since some of the previous years attendees have already made their reservations.

For those unable to attend the Collector's Dinner an opportunity to see the works of art will be available on display only on the Opening Night Fundraising Cocktail Party for Miniatures & More. Tickets to the Opening Night Party Fundraising Event are $75 per person and is held on Saturday October 25th. Please support Art in Albuquerque. We hope to see you there!
